Dear Sirs:-

I am very much interested in publications dealing with Greek and other ancient coins. Do you have any publications, illustrating coins, which are accessible to the general public?

Very truly yours,

Eric Gugler

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of February 23rd and, under separate cover, I am sending you a copy of our Numismatic Notes and Monographs which is sold for 50¢. If you desire to keep it, will you kindly remit that amount. I am sending this because you will find listed on its cover a number of other publications dealing with ancient coins. I shall be very glad to have your order for any of them.

I do not recall having had the pleasure of welcoming you to the library of our Society. We have here, of course, a very considerable number of works such as you describe, and we should be very glad to have you avail yourself of it.

If you have not already received an invitation to become a member of our Society, may I take this opportunity to extend to you a cordial invitation to do so? The annual dues are but Five Dollars, and 'Coin Hoards' is but one of a number of similar publications which are sent to members as part of their privileges.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Attention Mr. Noe

Dear Mr. Noe:

Thank you very much for the casts of the Greek coins, which I received in this morning's mail. They will be quite useful for my purpose and I appreciate the interest you have taken in getting them for me.

Sincerely yours,

P. S. If you will send me a bill for these casts
I shall be delighted to mail you a check.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of March 31st at hand. $1.00 would more than cover the cost of the casts, but I hardly feel like sending you a bill for it. I am very glad, indeed, that they meet your need.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
